Press-Reviews

2019

The great case of Lady Macbeth and Macbeth - Role: Macbeth

Süddeutsche Zeitung

... Macbeth, whose inner struggle between scruples and lust for power is deeply impressive shown by Gabriel ...

Münchner Merkur

Brilliant was the portrayal of the love and suffering ... by Caroline Betz as Lady Macbeth and her vain-ambitious, defiant-youthful, virile-warlike but in the end increasingly despairing of himself husband, who was sensually portrayed by Patrick Gabriel ...

2017

The Goat or Who is Sylvia? - Role: Martin Gray

Münchner Merkur

... Martin, strongly played by Patrick Gabriel ... Outstanding is the dialogue between Martin and Stevie (Sandra Heuer) ... Equally strong the conversation between Martin and his son ...

2015
German premiere
A Steady Rain / Role: Joey (Protagonist)

Süddeutsche Zeitung

... Patrick Wolff and Patrick Gabriel, who has already appeared in several of Seidel's productions, embody Joey and Denny in the truest sense of the word ... „A Steady Rain" is based entirely on the intense acting of its two justly acclaimed leading actors; after all, Bernd Seidel had wanted a real actor's play ... The suspense, carried by the two main actors, lasts until the end ...

Münchener Merkur

... After two and a half hours, the actors have earned the great applause ... The duo kept up the tension in emotionally charged monologue and dialogue, expressed pathos and larmoyanz rather cool and so corresponded to the American original ...

Hannoversche Allgemeine

... Gabriel and Wolff are able to carry the production through its more than two hours ... „A Steady Rain" is a play of US-American style and is worthwhile especially because such plays are not often seen on German stages.

Mindener Tagblatt

Patrick Gabriel and Patrick Wolff embody with bravura the fragile friendship of two different policemen ... The two-person play „A Steady Rain" lives from their strong acting ... Gabriel and Wolff succeed in keeping the tension in the emotionally hard play until the end and not only for that there is a lasting applause.

Rhein Main Press

... The external conflict and the ambivalence of the friends, which becomes more and more obvious, drive the suspense until the end and also kept the audience in suspense until the last minute.

2014
Amphitryon / Role: Sosias

Münchener Merkur

... First of all, Patrick Gabriel brilliantly proves that one could always do the obvious with Kleist's beginning: a comedy solo! His Sosias, as the best Sosiasses always were, is in grave danger of upstaging the rest of the evening's mimes. But Gabriel doesn't overdo it as he puzzles over the sudden doubling of himself, capable of ravishing comic miniatures....

Süddeutsche Zeitung

... Especially Gabriel succeeds in unfolding great comedic talent without robbing his character of dignity.

Stirnberg Zeitung Recklinghausen - Ruhrfestspielhaus Recklinghausen

... The actors are great throughout. Most rebellious is a biting sharp-tongued Sosias, the servant of Amphitryon alias Patrick Gabriel ...

Mindener Tageblatt

... First and foremost, Patrick Gabriel as Amphitryon's servant uses his ability to articulate Kleist's verses deftly, with great variety and pointedness, to create a shrewd, nuanced character ...

Südkurier Singen

... Particularly noteworthy in their roles are Dennesch Zoudé ... as well as Patrick Gabriel as Sosias, who even received scene applause.

Delmenhorster Kreisblatt

... Outstanding is not only the linguistic duel between Patrick Gabriel and Manuel Klein as Sosias and Merkur ...

Fuldaer Zeitung

... The audience is fascinated by the linguistic art of the poet, especially since at the beginning from the auditorium and then throughout so wonderfully spoken as by the excellent Patrick Gabriel as the servant Sosias. Dennesch Zoudé also stands out among the ensemble of six....

2013

The Pelican / Role: Fredrik

Süddeutsche Zeitung

... Gabriel plays the role of Fredrik very convincingly; he is broken and rebellious at the same time, coming across as a youngster who has grown old too soon, holding his own in a duel with his mother. He aches and coughs, hunched and yet full of emotion

Münchener Merkur

... Patrick Gabriel embodied the son Fredrik. With remarkable expressiveness in speech as well as facial expressions and gestures, he turns the slim student of law, who is preparing for his exams, into a freezing and coughing wretched figure, key figure of the drama. During crying fits, he goes to extremes

2012 The Chinese Nightingale & The Soldier's Tale /

Role: Narrator (12 roles)

Wolfsburger Nachrichten

... The narrator Patrick Gabriel achieved a very great effect ... This was a narrative tour de force ...

Münchener Merkur

... Gabriel's language is not only pure rhetoric, but imbued with musicality ...

Süddeutsche Zeitung

... Gabriel has an enormous two-hour workload to master ... He manages to create lively dialogues instead of a monotonous mishmash of voices

2011

Impressive and expressive, the most diverse emotional worlds were revealed when Macbeth (Patrick Gabriel) writhed in despair or looked down triumphantly from the throne ...
